Guidance

Investing involves risks, including loss of capital, illiquidity, lack of dividends and dilution, and should be done only as part of a diversified portfolio. Investments should only be made by investors who understand these risks. Do not invest unless you are prepared to lose all the money you invest. This is a high-risk investment and you are unlikely to be protected if something goes wrong.

Material Connection

The material on this website has been prepared for illustration purposes only by Oakmount and Partners. All information contained within this website is not to be relied upon as a basis of any contract or commitment. The information herein is not to be construed as an offer, invitation, or solicitation to invest and opinions expressed are subject to change without prior notice. Potential Bias and Due Diligence

The owner's opinion about a third-party product or service may be partially formed on the fact that the owner is likely to receive compensation for the product or service. The nature of the relationship is sufficient to establish a material connection between the owner and the provider. There will be instances where the owner will not receive compensation relating to the products or services on this website. You should assume that the owner has a material relationship with the product or service suppliers because the owner has received or is likely to receive something of monetary value from the supplier.

Compensation

The type of compensation may vary from receiving payment for a product or service or receiving complementary products or services. The owner is therefore not likely to receive any monetary compensation when you make a purchase for a product or service after clicking any affiliate link displayed.
